

SENSE AND SENSIBILITY CONFERENCE

Anthony Webber

Anthony Webber is a political strategist and campaigner, a commentator, broadcaster, public speaker and writer.

He is a former Independent Member of the Guernsey Parliament (1991-2004), well known for standing up on important issues and has wide business management and financial experience. He currently runs his own business and political advisory company.

He successfully assisted both the Better Together campaign in Scotland in 2014 and the Leave EU campaign in 2016, as well as assisting Scotland In Union and pro-UK candidates in Scotland in the 2015 General Election. He is also a Crown Dependencies' and British Overseas' Territories commentator, and led the Privy Council Petition of the Crown Dependencies to vote in the UK EU Referendum.

At the same time as working, he was also an elected Member of the States of Guernsey, as well as being engaged in numerous other public service commitments in the charity, sporting and cultural fields.

Webber was also founding Chairman of the Guernsey and Jersey Hope charity (Wessex Medical Trust), former Vice Chairman of the Guernsey Sports Council and Hockey Club, former Hockey correspondent of the Guernsey Press, former Chairman of the Guernsey Environmental Council. He also had involvement with many other community, and political issues.