

SENSE AND SENSIBILITY CONFERENCE

On

THE ORIGINS OF THE RUSSIA-NATO-UKRAINE WAR

Cambridge, UK.
April 2025

POSTER SESSION

A. Topics

General Category - Origins of the Russia-NATO-Ukraine war.

Participants can send in posters from the perspectives of any Party involved.

A multidimensional approach to the main topic is encouraged through exploring the subtopics within the Philosophical Transactions category.

Day Categories

Day 1

Morning

Double Standards? Comparative Responses to Military Provocations- Media Narratives.

Minsk Agreement – What Gorbachev Heard and Russian Response to NATO Expansion

NATO Expansion – vs – US Responses to Cuba Missiles

NATO Expansion – vs – US Response to Panama Concern (a current affairs matter).

Noon

The Story of Donbass and Lughansk.

Day 02

Morning

Russian Federation's Open Requests to the International Community for Intervention.

Gallery Posters on Data Presented to the UN by the Russian Federation Supporting Requests for Intervention on grounds of concerns for Ethnic Targetting of the Russians.

Noon

SMO Protected by Article 51 of the UN Charter.

United Nations Article 51- Application to Russian SMO- HIDDEN and UNMENTIONED IN THE WEST.

2. Poster Dimensions

The poster specifications are to be limited to a maximum of 60"x48".

3. Submissions

- * A digital copy of each poster is to be submitted with the abstract by the deadline.
- * Participants to print their posters in dimensions not exceeding 60"x48".
- * The last date for receipt of the Poster Abstracts is midnight 25th March 2025.
- * Please ensure the University or Institute Logos are clearly visible.
- * Clear indication of first author rights to be specified at the back of the poster.
- * Poster stands and board pins would be provided.

4. Publications

Hard copy publication of the submitted posters would be published in the K26 Journal's first Issue of May 2025.